Canon's Comments
14/15 September 2019

This weekend will be my first "official" weekend as Parish Priest of Scunthorpe, Gainsborough and Crowle. The process of moving in and unpacking will continue for a while! I am very pleased to be here with you all and by next weekend I hope to have celebrated Sunday Mass in all four parishes.

I come to you filled with good will and hope that the Mission of the Church in this part of our Diocese will be more than maintained. Along with Fr Liam and Deacon Sebastian I look forward to working with you all to achieve this.

As indicated two weeks ago in my message, the coming months will see changes that are inevitable so that the pastoral and practical care of all is effective – that is People and Clergy. An area of immediate change will be the location and timings of weekday Masses and I would ask you to check carefully your respective weekly newsletter for the revised programme.

Please do keep me, Fr Liam and Deacon Sebastian in your prayers and remember also Msgr. McGovern and Fr Neil as they take up their new positions.

With every good wish and blessing

Canon Geoffrey
