Message from Fr Matthew

Fr Liam and I would like to thank you all for your kindness and generosity this Easter, especially for the generous Easter offering, cards and gifts. We wish you all a continued happy Easter.

Divine Mercy Sunday

[Taken from Divine Mercy Apostolate Marian Fathers website www.divinemercyapostolate.co.uk/]
 Among all of the elements of devotion to the Divine Mercy requested by Jesus through St Faustina Kowalska (the feast of mercy, the image of the merciful Jesus, the chaplet, the hour of mercy and spreading the devotion to the Divine Mercy), the feast of mercy holds first place. The Lord's will with regard to its establishment was already made known in His revelation to the saint, as recorded in her Diary, 699:
 "My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which grace flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come forth from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and my mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness . . ."

In your charity please pray for all who have died recently, may they rest in peace.
Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
 please pray for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound and those who have no family to support them. We remember all those who are in hospital or are having treatment, those whose treatment has been cancelled or postponed and those who are in nursing homes or being cared for at home.

 May he rest in peace.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Blessed Sacrament, I love You above all things and I desire You in my soul, Since I now cannot receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart, I embrace you and unite myself to you; Permit not that I should ever be separated from You. Amen.
