The Return of the Sunday Obligation

The obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holydays has now been reinstated by the Bishop's Conference of England and Wales. However, this has to be understood correctly, because God never asks us to do something which is impossible or unwise. It has always been the case that we should attend Mass on these days unless prevented by a serious reason. If there is a serious reason why we cannot attend Mass on Sundays and Holydays, then the obligation no longer applies. Examples of a serious reason might be such things as personal illness, or vulnerability to infection; work commitments; lack of transport especially if one lives a long way from a Catholic church; family obligations such as the care of children. This particular commandment of the Church has always been tempered by reasonableness. It should be understood as being an obligation to attend when this is reasonably possible. It is also worth pointing out that the real reason we should attend Mass is not under a sense of obligation but because we want to out of love for God and the Sacraments. If you have any questions, please feel free to discuss this either with me or Fr Lim.

Fr Matthew

In your charity please pray for all who have died recently, may they rest in peace. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen. Please pray for their families at this difficult time; for those whose anniversaries occur at this time; for all who are sick and housebound and those who have no family to support them. We remember all those who are in hospital or are having treatment, those whose treatment has been cancelled or postponed and those who are in nursing homes or being cared for.

First Holy Communion Candidates

Please remember in your prayers the candidates, and families, as they prepare for their First Holy Communion at Holy Souls' and at St Bernadette's.

SPUC Appeal

This weekend there will be a second collection for SPUC (The Society for the Protection of Unborn Children). Since abortion was made legal in this country in 1967, many millions of innocent unborn children have lost their lives to abortion and countless mothers have been deeply damaged by the trauma of abortion. SPUC seeks to campaign to raise awareness of this dual tragedy. In March this year the situation deteriorated further when MPs voted to allow abortion to be carried out by the woman at home alone by the posting of abortion pills. Please support SPUC in their pro-life work and give generously to this appeal.
