Exaltation of the Holy Cross

On 14th September we celebrate the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. We celebrate the victory of Jesus over suffering and death. He is the supreme example of someone who went above and beyond what was strictly necessary to save others. Jesus was very afraid, as he anticipated the Cross. Had he not dreaded the torture, he would not have been human. Had he not continued on the same path he would not have been divine. Facing the continuing opposition of the authorities Jesus knew he faced a choice. Either he could abandon his Father's will, and save his earthly life, or he could fulfil his mission. We are told by St Luke that Jesus was so afraid of the Cross that he sweated blood. This, scientists tell us, only happens to humans in extreme stress. Jesus was weak and undefended. His friends and supporters quickly fled when the going became tough. In the eyes of those who captured him Jesus deserved to face the consequences of his actions. He was a dangerous, and outspoken fool. Yet the story of the Cross supersedes all human perspectives. Moses lifted up the staff with the fiery serpent on it. Anyone who was bitten by deadly serpents could look on the staff, and live. In the same way the Cross on which Jesus was raised up, is the only hope of fallen humanity. The Cross, if you like, cures the deadly bite of original sin. What was lost from a tree at the Fall of Adam and Eve, was regained on the wood of a tree, this time by Jesus. He is known as the second Adam, who undid work of the first Adam. This Feast recalls the day when in AD 326, according to tradition, St Helena, discovered the True Cross. She built the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem. The cross, is more than just a holy relic. It has a meaning that underpins the whole of Christianity. It proclaims that Jesus, as human as he was, overcame his fears and faced suffering and death in a supreme act of self sacrifice. It declares that without Good Friday, we can't have Easter Sunday. We are all caught up in the cross fire between good and evil in this life. And we can't do anything about it. However our faith teaches that suffering can have a positive dimension. It can be redemptive. The supreme example of this is Our Lord's sacrifice on the Cross. But God has blessed us all with our own little crosses of suffering, which we have been chosen to carry day by day. These too can be redemptive, making up what is lacking in the sufferings of Christ, for the salvation of the world. As we look at the crucifix today, let's ask God to help us to bear our own sufferings courageously, and to see within them a positive, and redemptive dimension.

Our Lady of Sorrows - 15th September

This Feast dates back to the twelfth century, but was especially promoted by the Cistercians and the Servites so that it was widely defused throughout the Catholic world by the fifteenth century. In 1913 Pope Pius X fixed September the 15th as the permanent date for the Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows. It falls on the day after the Feast of the Holy Cross, thus reminding the faithful of Mary's intense suffering during the passion and death of her Son. This Feast focuses our minds on all the sorrows of Mary, as indicated by the words of Simeon in the entrance antiphon, "And your own soul a sword shall pierce." These words were said by him at the presentation of Christ in the temple and are a prophecy of Mary's future sufferings. We must remember that as Jesus was raised on the Cross, Mary stood by him with great courage, sharing in his sufferings. In our Gospel we are reminded that Mary is not just the mother of Christ she is our mother as well. She plays an important role as mediatrix of graces, transmitting to us the fruits of Christ's passion. St Bernard says that Mary's suffering at the time of the Crucifixion was like a spiritual martyrdom: "Truly, O Blessed Mother, a sword has pierced your heart . . . He died in body through a love greater than anyone had known. She died in spirit through a love unlike any other since his."

A Prayer for Education Sunday
 11th September 2022

Dear Lord, thank you for the gift of Catholic schools. Thank you for all those who have given their talents to educating our young people. Through the challenges they encounter each day, lead them to an even deeper appreciation of the sacred duty to which you have called them. Thank you for all those who contribute to the efficient running of our schools; support staff, kitchen staff, maintenance staff, governors and chaplains. We thank them for their hard work and dedication. Thank you for all those who lead our Catholic schools. May they be people of integrity so that they can be witnesses as well as teachers. We pray that the schools they lead will become places where our young people can experience your love in their lives. Thank you for our pupils. May your love strengthen and nurture them through the influence and example of those who care for them. We pray that through their time at school they will flourish and grow to discover who you have called them to be. We make this prayer through your Son, Jesus Christ, our teacher and our Lord, Amen.

Help Shape our Catholic schools, apply to be a Foundation Governor

We are seeking to recruit Foundation Governors for our local Catholic primary and secondary academies which are part of the Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Multi Academy Trust. Being a Foundation Governor is immensely rewarding. It is a joy and a gift to contribute to the ministry of the Church by making our schools successful and ensuring that children are provided with a supportive environment within which they can learn and grow in their relationship with Jesus. If you are a practising Catholic and would like to know more please see the information leaflet in the Church porch or visit bit.ly/nottmfg
